

Not all school holidays have to look the same!

Let your kids escape to the bushy surrounds at Kiah Ridge for a week of fun that will last a lifetime.

There will be sports, swimming, craft, games, learning about the bible and Jesus, making new friends and more fun than they could possibly imagine.

What's it all about?

Our Kids Camps are especially designed for any children who will be in Years 3-6 in 2012 and aims to provide opportunities to help young people develop mentally, physically, socially and biblically in a natural and caring environment.

The leaders are committed Christians who desire to provide a fun, safe and loving environment for all the children.

We are offering 2 amazing camps in 2012

WHEN: January 8-13 and July 8-13

COST: $240 per camper for their 5 nights of fun.

How to get involved?

There are 3 options to register your interest in one or both of our camps.

1. Complete this form and return it to Kiah Ridge, and we will send you a registration form.
2. Email us your child's details, and we will send you a registration form.
3. Download a registration form from our website at www.kiahridge.org.au

Once we have received your full registration form and deposit, we will send a confirmation letter detailing dates, times, directions and what your child needs to bring to camp.

Kiah Ridge

Kiah Ridge Christian Conference Centre is owned by the Baptist Union of NSW & ACT. We exist to provide a safe and caring environment for churches, schools and other groups to utilise our facilities.

Our mission statement is:

"Kiah Ridge is a Christian Conference Centre existing primarily to partner with Christian Ministries in sharing the good news about Jesus in an environment of relaxation and re-creation."

Kiah Ridge Christian Conference Centre is located at Tahmoor, approximately 75 minutes from Sydney city and is set on 170 acres of natural bushland, adjacent to the picturesque Bargo River.

Register your interest now!

Please complete the form below and return to us if you would like a camp registration form.

Please note that by registering your interest in your child attending a camp does not confirm their place. See "How to get involved" for more details.
